

June is Refugee Awareness Month

Join the Needham Area Immigration Justice Task Force and the Needham Human Rights Committee for a community forum:

Guest Speaker Merissa Khurma will speak about the Syrian refugee crisis. She is a Mason Fellow from Jordan and candidate for a Masters of Public Administration at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government. Prior to joining Harvard, Merissa worked in various economic development projects in Jordan focusing on fiscal reform, workforce development and the Syrian refugee crisis.

Topics will include:

- Current status of the crisis
- Socio-economic impact on frontline states
- International community response
- Future challenges and community opportunities

Ms. Khurma will be joined by refugees who have settled in Massachusetts who will tell their stories.

Wednesday, June 1, 7:30 P.M.
The Center at the Heights
300 Hillside Ave., Needham

The forum is free and open to the public. For further information:
